SPRING FERTILITY FORUM

March 28-29, 2025, Athens, Greece

Welcome Letter

Dear colleagues,

We are delighted to extend our invitation for you to attend the Spring Fertility Forum 2025, which is scheduled to take place from March 28th to March 29th, 2025, in Athens.

Led by internationally acclaimed experts in the field of reproduction, this event promises an exceptional scientific program that includes lectures and interactive workshops. As a fertility specialist, this forum will provide you with invaluable insights and essential knowledge to enhance your professional expertise and daily practice. It aims to offer delegates new opportunities to broaden scientific and practical horizons in the realm of infertility treatments.

The Spring Fertility Forum 2025 is being organized by The Hellenic Society of Assisted Reproduction in collaboration with Controversies in Obstetrics, Gynecology, and Infertility (COGI).

We look forward to meeting you at this event!
